1. IPRA's Publishing Profile (1964-2014)

IPRA Studies in Peace Research

1. Proceedings of the IPRA Inaugural Conference. Assen: Van Gorcum 1966.
2. Proceedings of the IPRA Second Conference, 2 Vols. Assen: Van Gorcum 1968.
3. Proceedings of the Vienna Conference 1968: Cooperation in Europe. Ed. by Johan Galtung. Assen: Van Gorcum - New York: Humanities Press 1970.
4. Proceedings of the Third IPRA Conference, 3 Vols. Assen: Van Gorcum 1970.
5. Proceedings of the Fourth IPRA Conference. Oslo: IPRA 1973.
6. Proceedings of the Fifth IPRA Conference. Oslo: IPRA 1975.
7. Proceedings of the Seventh IPRA Conference. Tampere: IPRA 1979.
8. Proceedings of the Eighth IPRA Conference. Frankfurt: Campus 1981.
9. Proceedings of the Ninth IPRA Conference. Dundas, Ontario 1983.
10. Proceedings of the Tenth IPRA Conference. Budapest, Centre for Peace Coordination of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences 1985.

- Low publishing profile (1966-1985)
  - First 10 conferences (20 years): proceedings with different publishers
  - Only first six on IPRA website
- 1985-2006: Occasional Proceedings
- Leuven: Building Sustainable Futures (Deusto University Press, 2009)
- Five Proposals for IPRA's visibility:
  - Enhance scientific quality: peer review
  - Improve scientific visibility: major global publisher (higher price, better marketing)
    - Self-Publishing (low visibility)
    - Small National Publisher (marketing)
    - Global publisher (high visibility)
  - Improve scientific accessibility: also Ebook with global access for everybody
  - Aim at open access books: permanent free access: require a financial sponsor

2. Scientific Excellence & Scientific Publishing

- One of IPRA's problems has been: lack of high level scientific quality (lower scientific reputation):
- Many young people & established peace researchers with resources (e.g. from Scandinavia, Germany, UK) are not coming to IPRA but go annually to ISA & other professional disciplinary conferences.
- Many peace scholars publish in peer reviewed journals/books
- Lack of funding & permanent secretariat

Three Proposals:

- IPRA must enhance scientific quality of its presentations
- IPRA must again become an attractive place for quality discussions & innovative often unconventional, multidisciplinary value-oriented thinking on what peace means today & what key challenges are
- IPRA presentations should result in high quality publications in peer reviewed journals & books

4. Springer Publishers: 1842 to today

- 1842: Julius Springer set up book shop (became a publisher) in Berlin
- 1889: Kluwer was established in the Netherlands
- 1999: Bertelsmann Springer
- 2004: Bertelsmann Springer & Kluwer AP were merged: Springer Science+Business Media: result is one of the largest publishers worldwide in the Science, Technology, Medicine (STM) field.
- More than 200 Nobel Prize winners are authors.
- Some 2,200 English language journals and more than 8,400 new book titles published in 2013, in 5 main publishing fields: science, technology, medicine, business, and transport
- Springer eBook Collection with more than 160,000 titles available on link.springer.com
- Largest open access portfolio worldwide, with over 420 open access journals
- More than 7,000 employees worldwide

3. Scientific Publishing: 3 Springer Book Series

Publishing Experience with many national & international publishers:

- Ballinger books (1983), disappeared
- Macmillan (today Palgrave Macmillan): 1987, 1989, 2000
- Crane Russak (today Taylor & Francis): 1990, 1991, 1992
- IPRA Series of SDC: published by AFES-PRESS (low/no demand)

Since 1996, 1997 with Springer-Verlag (Heidelberg):

1. Hexagon Series on Human, Environmental Security and Peace (HESP), since 2003 (peer reviewed)
2. SpringerBriefs in Environment, Security, Development and Peace (ESDP) Series, since 2012 (peer reviewed)
3. SpringerBriefs on Pioneers in Science and Practice (PSP) Series, since 2012 (to honour the lifelong achievement of leading scholars of any discipline, Nobel laureates & policymakers of any country)
