

15401 HS - Coping with Global Environmental Change, Disasters and Security

1. 20.11.2006: 18-20, Osteuropa-Institut, 55/323): Brauch: Distribution of seminar topics

9.2.2007: 14.00-20.00, Innestraße 22/UG 2

II. 14.00-14.30: Brauch: Introduction

III. 14.30-15.15: Introduction: Contextual global political change and reconceptualisation of security

R.1: Culot: Political change: turning points in world politics and international relations: 9 November 1989 or 11 September 2001?

IV. 15.15-16.00: Narrow vs. wide security concepts: military vs. environmental and human security

R.4: Albert: Widening the Scope of Security Dangers: The Copenhagen School: economic, societal and environmental security

Pause 16.00-16.15

V. 16.15-17.00: Environmental security as a theoretical construct: four phases of the conceptual debates

R.5: Kaskys: Three phases of environmental security studies

VI. 17.00-17.15: Environmental security as a political goal: UN, UNEP, UNDP, UNU, OSCE, NATO, EU

VII. 17.15-18.45: Referents of securitisation: State security vs. human security

R.9: De Kettle: UNDP conceptualisation of human security and its policy impact on the UN system

R.10: Fischer: The four pillars of human security or; Activities of the Human Security Network

Pause 18.45-19.00

VIII. 19.00-19.45: Global environmental change: conceptual evolution since the 1980s

R.11: Toepfer: Global environmental change: what it means: as a new research field in the Social Sciences

10.2.2007: 9.00-17.00, Rost-/Silberlaube K 23/27

IX. 9.00-9.30: Global environmental change: conceptual evolution since the 1980s

R.12: Daum: Global environmental change posing objective security dangers and subjective concerns

X. 9.30-10.00: Global environmental change: research programmes: IGBP, IHDP, WCRP, Diversitas

R.14: Wehinger: Global Environmental Change and Human Security (GECHS): Secretariat in Oslo

XI. 10.00-10.45: Models linking: Global environmental change & policy response: OECD, UN-CSD, EEA

R. 15: Weischer: OECD PSR Model - UN CSD DSR) model – EEA DPSIR Model

XII. 10.45-11.00: Models linking: Global environmental change and policy response: PEISOR and others

Brauch: PEISOR Model: at: < http://www.afes-press.de/html/download_hgb.html >

XIII. 11.00-11.45: Impacts of GEC: hydro-meteorological hazards and disasters: storms, floods, drought

R.19: Reimers: Impacts of Climate Change: Extreme Weather Events: Assessments of Munich Re and CRED: EM-DAT

Pause 11.45-12.30

XIV. 12.30-13.15: Environmentally & hazard induced population movements: urbanisation and migration

R. 21: Haug: Does Climate Change force people to move?

XV. 13.15-14.45: Environmentally and hazard induced societal, economic and political crises

R.23: Flegel: Do Hazards and Disasters led to Crises and Conflicts: Scientific approaches, assessments and evidence

R.24: Klatte: On or several case studies: Sudan, Ethiopia, Morocco or Haiti?

Pause 14.45-15.00

XVI. 15.00-15.45: Environmentally and hazard induced societal, economic and political conflicts

R.25: Wenke: Natural hazards and disasters: Does a gender-specific analysis matter?

XVII. 15.45-16.30: National policy responses in Germany

R.27: Aykut: German Response to Environmental Hazards and Complex Emergency

XVIII. 16.30-17.15: International policy responses at the EU (EU-ECHO) and UN (UN-OCHA) level

R.30: Herbert: ECHO - European Commission's Humanitarian Aid Office

XVII. 17.15-17.30: Final discussion of the seminar